ATLANTA – (January 8, 2014) – Church's Chicken (Church's), the quick service restaurant chain, announced today the appointment of its new advertising agency of record (AOR) the Boulder, Colorado-based agency Made. Made will be responsible for campaign work on behalf of Church's that includes TV, radio, digital, point-of-sale, and packaging that will support Church's while helping to forge a deeper connection between the highly-recognized brand and its restaurant guests. Made's strategic partner, Grupo Gallegos, based in Huntington Beach, CA will be handling the multicultural marketplace for Church's.

Steve Davis, Church's chief concept officer directed the brand's search. "The process was rigorous, expedient and inclusive," said Davis referring to the 90-day start to finish agency review. "Church's key constituents including brand owners, executive leadership members as well as franchisees participated in the review."

"We saw some outstanding work from many agencies but at the end of the day, it was clear that the team from Made had a clear understanding of the values and vision for the Church's brand," said Davis. "Moreover, the team at Made demonstrated some deep strategic and creative thinking and presented breakthrough ideas that included integrated campaign platforms covering everything from TV to digital to packaging."
