20 New Texas Chicken® Restaurants Coming to Belarus in 2015 and 2016 Church's Chicken® International Brand Announces Huge European Expansion

ATLANTA, GA – Thanks to a new development agreement between Cajun Global LLC (doing business in the U.S. as Church's Chicken®) and Milkimpex, LLC, casual diners in Belarus will soon have 20 new Texas Chicken® restaurants for satisfying their appetite for delicious chicken dishes. The exclusive countrywide deal will bring a variety of both in-line and free-standing restaurants to a number of Belarusian cities – beginning with Minsk in December 2015.

“Considering Belarus is roughly the size of Kansas, a 20-store agreement proves just how high demand is for our tasty, best-in-class chicken,” said Tony Moralejo, Senior Vice President and Chief Development Officer for Church's® and Texas Chicken®. “We’re eager to begin serving the people of Belarus and the rest of Northern Europe with the delicious quality they’ve come to expect from Church's® and Texas Chicken®.”

The new Texas Chicken® locations in Belarus will feature a few new locally-influenced menu items, plus the same delicious menu items as Church's® in the U.S., such as the restaurant’s famous hand-battered fried chicken, chicken sandwiches, honey butter biscuits, creamy tangy coleslaw, juicy corn on the cob and more. “Great taste is something everyone appreciates, no matter where they’re from,” said Moralejo. “These 20 new stores are a great victory for good, wholesome food that’s convenient and affordable.”

“It’s a great strategic fit for the Texas Chicken® brand and a great addition to our expansion plan for Eastern Europe”, said Bill Schreiber, VP of Global Development.
