CHURCH'S CHICKEN® SURPRISES SCHOLARSHIP WINNER AND CLASSMATES WITH A BIG GRADUATION PRESENT

Cluck Truck rolls into San Juan to celebrate with senior class and teachers

San Juan, TX – This Friday, May 29, as seniors at PSJA Early College High School prepare for graduation, Church's Chicken® has a special gift in store for them, and it comes wrapped in a 27 ft. steel container. The Church's Chicken® Cluck Truck will be making a surprise appearance starting at 2 p.m. at the San Juan high school, 805 W. Ridge Road, to help the graduating class and their teachers celebrate with free hand-battered fried chicken and scratch-made biscuits. The festivities are also in honor of one of the students, Hailie Ciomperlik, who is a recipient of a $1,000 scholarship as part of this year's Church's® Scholars Program through the Church's Partners Foundation, Inc.

"This is the second year that the Church's® Scholars Program has awarded scholarships to deserving students," said Edward Brett, President, Church's Partners Foundation, Inc. "The program started in Texas, where the Church's® brand also originated, and has now expanded to 18 states and will award $175,000 in scholarships in 2015. We are delighted to celebrate this momentous occasion for the program and for one of our scholars with this special party."

PSJA Early College High School is home to students who applied for funding through the Church's® Scholars Program, including one winner. The San Juan high school was selected at random, among other schools in the Rio Grande valley with scholarship applicants, to receive the Cluck Truck celebration. Each scholarship recipient receives $1,000 to use toward his or her higher education.

The Church's® Scholars program is one of many initiatives that emphasizes Church's® and its Foundation's commitment to the education of the young adults within the communities that the brand serves.
