Church's Chicken® Presents Distribution Center of the Year Award to PFG Richmond-Based Performance Food Group Selected Based on Top Quality and Performance

Atlanta, GA – (May 11, 2017) - Church's Chicken, the global quick service restaurant chain of chicken passionates serving chicken passionates, announced today that it has awarded Performance Food Group (PFG Little Rock) with its prestigious Distribution Center of the Year Award for 2016. PFG, based in Richmond, VA, delivers more than 150,000 food and related products to customers across the United States and has been servicing Church's® since 2015.

PFG's Little Rock distribution center was selected from among 14 distribution centers supporting the Church's system based on Church's Distribution Center Performance Evaluation, which examines a number of key performance attributes related to the delivery of the Church's brand to its restaurants and guests. The evaluation produces individual distribution center scores for freshness, quality, safety, inventory management and other key performance indicators (KPIs). The distributor achieving the highest score receives the award.

"We are thrilled to present this year's award to PFG Little Rock," said Barry Barnett, Senior Vice President, Global Supply Chain & Purchasing. "PFG exemplifies values that are closely aligned with Church's, helping us fulfill our purpose of making great chicken experiences that guest love."

Executives from Church's were on-hand at PFG's Little Rock distribution center to present the award to PFG's management team.

"We are beyond honored to receive the Distribution Center of the Year Award from Church's," said Joe Copeland, President, PFG Little Rock. "PFG has been servicing the food service industry for many years over which time we've gained a reputation for exemplary quality and service. We are happy to be recognized as a partner in Church's ongoing success."
