CHURCH'S CHICKEN® CELEBRATES NATIONAL FRIED CHICKEN DAY
JULY 6

Restaurant chain celebrates with exclusive one-day offer

ATLANTA, GA – Long hailed as an American menu favorite, fried chicken has its annual day of glory at Church's Chicken® with a National Fried Chicken Day celebration on Wednesday, July 6, 2016. What better way to get over the midweek hump after the Fourth of July holiday weekend than to indulge in crunchy, juicy, hand-battered chicken? The Church's® National Fried Chicken Day deal features eight delicious pieces of scratch-made fried chicken for only $6.99 and will be available at participating restaurants from open to close.

"Church's Chicken is known for the love and care we put into the preparation of our fried chicken to ensure every piece is packed with flavor and reflects our standards of quality," said Jennifer Chasteen, Senior Director of Brand & Product Strategy at Church's Chicken. "National Fried Chicken Day is the perfect occasion for us to shine a spotlight on what we do best and celebrate it by offering our guests an unbeatable family value."

For more than 60 years Church's has been hand-battering its signature chicken from scratch in small batches all day long. There is no limit on the number of eight-piece boxes guests may purchase as part of the National Fried Chicken Day special, so For the Love of Chicken™, visit your local Church's on July 6 to celebrate with great taste.

To get a wing up on other Church's news and deals, download their free mobile app, available on Google Play and the App Store. App users receive exclusive offers and loyalty rewards stars for repeat visits, plus access to exciting new features, including streaming music playlists, photo filters and 'photo sticker' tools.
