Church's Chicken® Keeps Moving Forward in Texas with Latest Travel-Center Opening

ATLANTA, GA – On November, 15, 2016, Church's Chicken® franchisee Road Ranger opened the fourth Church's® restaurant in a 10-restaurant deal. Located in Lacy Lakeview, TX at a major travel center along the I-35 corridor, this newest restaurant joins other Road Ranger-owned restaurants in Odessa, TX; Marshall, IL; and Encinal, TX.

"Experienced operators like Road Ranger bring tremendous value to our brand" said Bill Schreiber, Vice President of Worldwide Business Development at Church's Chicken. "Their innovative approach creates unique expansion opportunities and allows for smart, strategic growth."

Road Ranger is one of the country's leading truck stop and travel center chains, with operations throughout the Midwest U.S and Texas, including Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa and Missouri. Their focus on travel-oriented destinations was one of the key aspects behind the multi-restaurant deal, and the new Lacy Lakeview location will be a convenient stop for the more than 220,000 daily travelers that use the I-35 corridor for business and personal travel.

"We believe that quality dining and to-go foodservice is a cornerstone of a successful travel center customer experience," said David Saporta, CEO of Road Ranger. "Church's reputation for taste and consistency pairs perfectly with our commitment to deliver a superior dining experience."

The Lacy Lakeview Church's restaurant is open between 7am and 9pm, seven days a week, and can be found inside the Travel Center at 6615 North Interstate Hwy 35 and offers convenient counter service and casual seating.
