Church's Chicken® Announces New Location in South Louisiana Franchisee opens the 4th restaurant in Lafayette

Lafayette, LA– (July 31, 2018) - Church's Chicken®, one of the largest chicken restaurant chains in the world, announced the latest opening of its newest fast-food restaurant in Lafayette, Louisiana. The brand is continuing satisfying the area's chicken passionates under franchisee Global Vision Entities, LLC. This is the 4th location in this area and it hosted a grand opening celebration on July 30th at 4145 W. Congress St. Lafayette, LA. The franchise group owns a total of two restaurants in Lafayette.

"It is our goal to make Church's Chicken the #1 choice for fried chicken for the residents of Acadiana. We want to help grow the brand by constructing the new Church's Chicken prototype restaurants in Lafayette, LA. Church's has an appealing fresh new look that will attract many new guests to its locations. Along with its great food, Church's has added a bold new look for its guests in South Louisiana", said Myron Guillory, from Global Vision Entities, LLC.

Church's is world-renowned for their freshly-prepared original and spicy chicken and fresh-baked Honey-Butter Biscuits™ made from scratch daily. The restaurant is strategically located in a residential area and it features Church's STAR Initiative Design package, which includes contemporary dining room décor highlighted by new seating installations; modern color palettes on both the interior and exterior; enhanced architectural elements; sconce lighting indoors; and shaded canopies outdoors.
