Newest Church's Chicken® Restaurant Opens in Ontario, Canada
Hurontario St. Location First of Many Church's Planned for Greater Brampton/Mississauga

ATLANTA, GA – Holiday shopping crowds in Brampton, Ontario got a special treat on Saturday, November 25th as the all-new Church's Chicken® at 7700 Hurontario Street officially welcomed guests to enjoy the brand's signature hand-battered, double-breaded fried chicken, homestyle sides, and scratch-made honey butter biscuits. The restaurant's new franchise owners – Amer Ellahi and Ursula Holowko are long-time Ontario residents and experienced food service operators eager to bring people together through the universal love of quality, great tasting chicken and unbeatable value.

"It is always rewarding for us when Church's growth in new markets is realized through the entrepreneurial spirit and engagement of new franchisees," said Tony Moralejo, Executive Vice President of International Business for Church's Chicken/Texas Chicken. "Mr. Ellahi's and Ms. Holowko's passion for our brand provide an excellent foundation for this and future Church's restaurants serving Brampton, and other new markets in the area"

"We really wanted to expand the number of quality dining options in Brampton, while also delivering a superior value," explained Holowko, who will serve as Vice President for the franchise group. "Church's Chicken fit the picture beautifully with a great-tasting product at a reasonable price."

The new Church's restaurant is located at 7700 Hurontario Street, Brampton, Ontario L6Y 4M3 on the corner of Ray Lawson and Hurontario. It is open seven days a week from 11am to 11pm.
